

WEALTH-SHARING SYSTEM FAVORED BY FRANK KNOX

Says Capitalistic System Has Grave Defects

Huntington, W. Va., Aug. 13.—(P)—Colonel Frank Knox, Republican nominee for vice president, told West Virginia Republicans tonight he seeks in the future "a real share-the-wealth development in this land."

He spoke before the mountain state's Republican convention, called to nominate candidates for the supreme court bench, and draft a campaign platform.

The vice presidential candidate said the "share-the-wealth" program he hopes to see carried out consists of greater ownership of corporation assets by workers.

He explained, in an address prepared for delivery:

"In our American society there should be no antagonism between the worker and the stockholder. Our capitalist system rests on the corporation, large and small. This capitalist system has grave defects. There are inequalities in it. But it has built the greatest productivity in the history of all mankind. It has given the American worker the highest wages in all history. The man who would tear down this marvelous system when there is no equally productive system to replace it is an enemy of his country. I want to see our economic system purged of its injustices. I want to see it preserved for its benefits."

"I want to see in the future a real share-the-wealth development in this land."

"I want to see an increasing share in the profits of this system going to the workers. I want to see this come about, not by any suicidal scheme of destruction, but by an extension of the ownership of corporation shares by the workers. Unseen and unnoticed, this process has been going on a long time. There are 12 million owners of corporate shares in this country today. War and depression have temporarily set back this great movement. It will begin again. In this movement lies the prospect of a genuine share-the-wealth program. In it there is the prospect of industrial peace in this country."

The Chicago publisher also attacked the present administration as "too expensive a luxury to continue four more years," saying:

"This administration embarked on a series of blind, reckless and cruelly expensive experiments on the vital institutions of American economic life. It inaugurated a policy of blind expenditure of the people's money. It established policies that undermined credit and currency. It forced experiments that hurried business and retarded production. It began at once to create an enormous federal bureaucracy, the largest in any government in the history of the world."

Relatives Seek Whereabouts of Parents; Boy Ill

Surgeons Cannot Operate Without Permission They Claim

Kansas City, Aug. 13.—(P)—Ten-year-old Tommy Dunklin pouted in disgust from his sick-bed today while friends and relatives sought his vacationing parents to obtain permission to operate on the boy.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Dunklin, were believed motoring in Wisconsin or Michigan, but efforts to locate them by letter, wire or radio have failed.

When they departed last week they left the home, Tommy and two younger children in charge of a young maid, Miss Hazel Simpson. Then Tommy became ill with appendicitis. Five physicians agreed an operation was necessary, but they must have the parents' consent.

"Why make such a fuss about appendicitis?" blustered Tommy, as he lay in bed, his pain relieved by ice packs.

"The known lots of kids who've had it, and besides—I'm hungry, and my side doesn't hurt now unless I sorta press on it."

Attending physicians reported that unless something unexpected developed, the boy "may be tied over this attack." But they added that the need for a decision on whether to operate still remained "acute."

KILLS WIFE

Kansas City, Aug. 13.—(P)—Phillip Hernandez, Filipino musician, today was sought by police after his 18-year-old white bride of a year was found hacked to death in a hotel "servitor" room for which he had "checked."

The nude body of Mrs. Hernandez, also known as Freda Geer, had been slashed on the arms, body and throat. A new butcher knife, its blade covered with blood, lay on a desk. On the bed were fragments of a broken soda bottle.

Woman Hopes for Twins to Capture Place in "Derby"

Three Mothers are Now Tied in Race for $500,000 Award

Toronto, Aug. 13.—(P)—Mrs. Gus Graziano prepared tonight to enter a hospital for the birth of a baby, but she hoped for twins or better, the Canadian press reported.

Two new Grazianos would place the mother in a four-way tie in the Charles Vance Millar "baby derby."

Mrs. John Nagle Tuesday night became the mother of a nine-pound girl, her tenth child, and Mrs. Arthur Timlock and Mrs. Grace Bagnato each have ten children.

All of the children were born since the death Oct. 31, 1926, of Millar, who stipulated in his will that $500,000 should go to the mother who gave birth to the most babies in Toronto in the ten years after his death.

Mrs. Martin Kenny asserts she has 12 children, but the three mothers in the lead with 10 each dispute her statement.

Mrs. Graziano has a basis for her hope for twins.

"I have a hunch twins will be along," she said. "They run in our family. My husband had two sets of twins and my husband's mother one set. I never had twins myself."

Taxpayers are Doomed to Pay Spangler Says

G. O. P. Vice-Chairman Says Inflation Is Answer to Ruinous Spending

Chicago, Aug. 13.—(P)—Harrison E. Spangler, vice chairman of the Republican National Committee, said in a statement issued from Republican headquarters tonight that "inflation" was the answer to the White House conference on taxation.

His statement said:

"If there is this emergency over taxation now, is it not pertinent to ask why the taxpayers have received none of the benefit thought of Mr. Roosevelt when all of his orgs of spending was started?"

"The same president who is now so thoroughly concerned about the welfare of the taxpayers, asked Congress last spring for one billion, five hundred million dollars to spend as he pleased."

"It will be remembered that the president's budget which is supposed to reflect the government's financial conditions shows that, if by any chance Mr. Roosevelt is re-elected, he will ask Congress for another huge blank check next January."

"What is the answer? There is only one. Inflation."

"The taxpayers are doomed to pay any pay if the ruinous spending is not stopped."

"The New Dealers are again seeking to lull the country into a sense of security as they have many times before. The American people, however, can place no more reliance upon these new assurances than upon the old ones already thoroughly discredited."

Assessments On Railroads Cut

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 13.—(P)—The tax commission today announced 1936 assessments on properties of the 80 railroads operating in Illinois at $415,791,119, a decrease of $18,159,248 from last year's assessments of $433,950,367.

The average decrease in valuation, the commission reported, was 4.13 per cent which acting Chairman S. E. Leland said was one of the smallest declines in railroad valuations since 1930.

Of the 80 roads assessed, valuations were increased on 33 roads while 41 carriers received reductions. During the year 2 small companies in the state ceased operations.

Leland said the reduced decline reflected gradually improving financial conditions of the railroads and predicted that "barring unforeseen factors, railroad assessments should show marked increases in the next few years."

In making assessments the commission said it had sought to equalize the valuation of the carriers with other property locally assessed and maintain a similar uniformity among the railroads themselves.

The railroads have 10 days within which to file complaints against the valuations. If any are entered, public hearings will be held.

WILL EXHUME BODY

Greeley, Colo., Aug. 13.—(P)—Sheriff Gus Anderson said today he will have the body of Ray Butler exhumed at Bingham, Ill., and brought here to determine, if possible, what weapon was used to kill the Keola, Colorado, rancher.

Recall Roberts former Greeley police chief, and George Wier, farmer, each charged the other with striking the blows which killed Butler. Both were held on murder charges. They asserted an argument over money matters led to the killing.

Butler was slain June 2 and his body was found in an abandoned well near Purcell, Colo., July 17.

WALLACE SAYS U. S. HAS GOOD WHEAT SUPPLY

Denies New Deal Crop Control Caused Shortage

Washington, Aug. 13.—(P)—Denying New Deal crop control has caused a grain shortage, Secretary Wallace announced today that the government's soil conservation program would be continued next year but that it would not be designed to limit wheat plantings.

At a press conference in which the drought's toll was emphasized by word that grasshoppers and other insects were "cleaning up many fields of grain and forage crops" which survived the hot weather, the secretary of agriculture predicted increased seedings of both wheat and corn for next season.

Asked how farmers could increase corn and wheat acreage and still receive federal payments under the soil conservation program, he said they could reduce acreage of other soil-depleting crops.

Wallace flatly denied that the administration has caused domestic grain shortages or necessitated imports.

"There has been too much scare talk about wheat," he said. "We have plenty of wheat."

After asserting that both wheat and corn planted for harvest this year was above last year's acreage, and that wheat acreage was 74,500,000 acres compared to an average of 67,325,000 from 1928 to 1932, Wallace added:

"Hok any of these amateurs running around the country can claim our wheat program caused shortages is more than I can see."

He said a normal yield from increased wheat acreage next year could result in an 800,000-bushel crop, with 150,000,000 bushels available for export.

"This might force wheat prices down 25 or 30 cents a bushel," he commented.

The soil program for next year Wallace added, will be guided "first by the terms of the act, and second by meetings with farmers we will hold this fall."

F. D. Roosevelt Pays Visit to Johnstown, Pa.

Tells Citizens Government Will Cooperate in Flood Prevention

Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 13.—(P)—President Roosevelt promised Johnstown citizens tonight the federal government would cooperate to the utmost to prevent recurrence of floods which poured through the city last March.

Leaving his special train for the first time on his personal tour of flood areas in Pennsylvania and New York, the chief executive rode through the downtown section of the city where flood waters caused damage estimated at $28,000,000 last St. Patrick's day.

Crowds lined the route to the city limits as the president was whisked 15 miles to the site of a proposed dam on Stony creek which army engineers assert would help remove the menace of floods from Johnstown.

Referring to floods of last March, the president said:

"We want to keep you from facing those dangers again, and the federal government, so long as I have anything to do with it, is going to cooperate with your communities and your state to do everything possible to prevent floods."

Praising the attitude of Johnstown's citizens in the spring flood emergency, the president said they had "shown the finest qualities of good American courage."

Asserting he intended to make other inspections, the president added he believed he could "render a better service if I see things at first hand than if I just remain in Washington."

Accompanying Mr. Roosevelt in his car were Governor George H. Earle of Pennsylvania, who joined the party at Johnstown and Major-General Edward M. Markham, chief of army engineers.

Local Elevated Trains Collide

New York, Aug. 13.—(P)—Two local trains on the 3rd Avenue Elevated line crashed at 47th street tonight. First reports said that at least one person was dead and a dozen others injured.

The two trains involved in the collision both were south bound. An official of the Interborough Rapid Transit Corporation, which operates the line, said that one was a work train and the other carried passengers.

It was a rear end collision with the passenger train striking the empty work train. The motorman in the first car of the passenger train was the one caught and crushed in his booth.

Mayor P. H. LeGuardia, hearing of the accident, rushed to the scene and, disregarding the effect on his white suit, climbed up a 40-foot ladder to the elevated structure to watch the rescue operations.

Forest Fires Spreading; Border Settlers Evacuate Northern Minnesota Towns

Sterilization Trial Opens in San Francisco

Two Physicians Accused of Conspiracy to Commit Mayhem

San Francisco, Aug. 13.—(P)—Pettie Ann Cooper Hewitt, heiress to a fortune estimated as high as $10,000,000, secluded herself from curious spectators today as prosecutors strove for a woman-dominated jury to try two physicians accused of sterilizing her.

The physicians, Dr. Samuel G. Boyd and Dr. Tilton E. Tillman, together with Miss Hewitt's mother, Maryon Cooper Hewitt, are accused of conspiracy to commit mayhem in an alleged plot to deprive the heiress of motherhood, thereby tightening the mother's hold on the fortune.

Mrs. Hewitt, fugitive from the conspiracy warrant here, is in New Jersey awaiting trial on an attempted suicide charge.

With four women and eight men in the jury box, attorneys representing the accused doctors today signified their willingness to accept the 12 but Assistant District Attorney August Fourtner refused to concur.

In a civil suit filed last winter the heiress accused her mother, the doctors and a psychiatrist of "tricking" her into a sterilization operation. By the action, she contended, Mrs. Hewitt sought to gain control of Ann's inheritance as the daughter and heir of the late Peter Cooper Hewitt, inventor.

Cook Tells How He Killed Pretty Japanese Actress

Beat Girl Over Head With Chisel, Then Slashed Her Throat

Los Angeles, Aug. 13.—(P)—A 30-year-old cook who told officers "maybe I've lost—but the other fellow didn't win" was jailed here tonight on suspicion of murder in the triangle slaying of pretty Miki Takaoka, 25-year-old Japanese actress, Monday night.

Deputy Sheriff P. P. Labrum quoted the cook, Raymond Johnson, as saying "if I couldn't have Miki, he couldn't either."

"He" is William J. Barchand of New York, Johnson's rival for the actress' affections since the easterner and Miss Takaoka met on a transcontinental bus trip a week ago.

Johnson was captured in a Corona rooming house and returned here. Labrum quoted Johnson as telling this story:

"I went to her home Monday night and found Barchand there."

"We quarrel and I stabbed him with an ice pick several times. x x x I preyed on my mind—this Barchand's interference—and I decided that if I couldn't have Miki, he couldn't either."

"I got a hatchet and put it in my suitcase and drove to her house x x x. Then I went into the kitchen and got a butcher knife and a chisel and went to Miki's room. I stood by the bed. Pretty soon she opened her eyes and spoke."

"I want to get up, Ray, will you find my shoes?"

"She leaned over to get her slippers. I struck her on the head with the chisel several times and she cried out, 'Ray, Ray—don't do that!'"

"Then just as she straightened up, I slashed her across the throat with the butcher knife. x x x"

Says Roosevelt For John Lewis

New York, Aug. 1.—(P)—William Hutcherson, director of the labor division of the Republican campaign, asserted today that President Roosevelt definitely favors the John L. Lewis group in the American Federation of Labor controversy.

He said the vertical type of union, advocated by Lewis and the committee for industrial organization, had little or no backing before the beginning of the Roosevelt administration.

"A vote for C. I. O.," he said. "I think Roosevelt will lose a large number of votes when his stand is generally known."

Lewis and a group of his associates in organizing industrial unions recently were threatened with suspension by the executive committee of the A. F. of L. for their activities.

KILLED BY TRAIN

Pontiac, Ill., Aug. 13.—(P)—James McGinnis, 62, driving into town from his Chenox farm to buy flowers for a friend's funeral, was killed today when an Alton road train struck his automobile eight miles south of here.

St. Paul, Aug. 13.—(P)—Evacuation of several northern Minnesota border settlers before an advancing Canadian forest fire came simultaneously tonight with a state command ordering sheriffs of nine counties to close all secondary roads to regular traffic.

Ranger Dick Willem of Warroad, Minn., notified the state forestry department that settlers north of the village, in the path of a major Canadian blaze, fled their homes down a narrow road that provides the sole access to the region.

Grover Conzet, state forester, telegraphed sheriffs of nine northern counties advising them to "post guards closing all side or secondary roads to traffic where these roads lead into large or threatening forest fires."

Simultaneously, rangers announced that the Beltrami Island state forest, between Warroad and Baudette, were closed to regular travel. Smoke in the area has obscured vision, and sightseers are interfering with fire control operations. A radiogram informed the state department of forestry tonight that the Kabetogama Lake blaze 40 miles west of International Falls had "torn away loose" from the 400 men stationed there.

A. F. Opper, deputy state director who received the wire over short wave, said a smaller blaze backfired on Kabetogama peninsula, coalesced with the principal fire and burned 2,000 feet of state hose and other equipment.

A story of firefighters playing a game of hide-and-seek with the flames came in the morning. Southwest winds fanned a fire in the Lost Bay Kabetogama sector toward Mica Bay where the blazes joined as the fleeing CCC's and other laborers set up a new camp.

The original base was located at Mica Bay. From there the firefighters moved to Lost Bay, but the wind shifted from the southwest to northeast and they moved again—this time to an island in the lake. The rambling fire, with an estimated 10,000 acres leveled, had covered from three to four miles, Opper estimated.

The blaze is far out on the Kabetogama peninsula in an unsettled region of second growth, cutover and burned timberland. The region is west of Kettle Falls near the international boundary.

The forest department had reports of another serious blaze in Kittson county north of Hallowell. Crews were shifted from smaller areas of the vicinity to the new scene of action.

Ranger Willem reported a "crest fire" when flames lick the tops of giant conifers with speed beyond control—raged in the Canadian timber north of the Warroad section.

Conzet's telegram was to sheriffs of St. Louis, Pine, Carlton, Aitkin, Itasca, Koochiching, Lake of the Woods and Roseau counties.

Socialists of Spain Use Force Against Rebels

Speedy Death to Civil War Planned By Government

Situation at a glance: Rebel planes bomb San Sebastian in renewed attack.

Four English, two Dutch airplanes believed en route to Spain; Britain fears neutrality won't work.

France agrees to ban mass enlistment of volunteers to answer Italian charges she permits "moral support" of Loyalist government.

Rebels march on Estepona near Gibraltar; government warships attack Algeiras.

Seville radio station says 40 Loyalist aviators captured, executed in battle at San Rafael Espinar.

Government lays siege to Oviedo; captures four small towns in south; predicts quick end to revolt.

By Alexander H. Uhl (Associated Press Foreign Staff)

Madrid, Aug. 13.—(P)—The Socialist government of Spain tonight threw every force at its command against the Fascist insurrection in a mighty effort to end speedily the death and destruction of civil war.

By land in the south, in the air forward San Sebastian to aid Loyalists there, and into the Gibraltar Straits with warships, the government ordered its greatest offensive.

From Irún came disquieting news for the government—that five rebel planes bombed San Sebastian and inflicted heavy damage in a renewed effort to gain that seaside resort on the Bay of Biscay.

The revolt, Loyalists proclaimed, must be stamped out "within a few hours."

Outside northern Oviedo, the Socialist fighters hurled heavy artillery fire in an effort to recapture that munitions center from Fascist rebels.

STARTS NEW STYLE

Sibenik, Yugoslavia, Aug. 13.—(P)—King Edward has started a new style trend along the Dalmatian coast.

On a vacation cruise aboard the Yacht Mahlin, he purchased a simple cotton jersey shirt worn usually by fishermen in this country.

Today, citizens from every walk of life besieged clothing stores in a demand for a similar shirt and dealers said their stock was running low.

SAN SEBASTIAN IS BOMBARDED BY AIRPLANES

Government Threatens To Execute 700 Fascists

Irún, Spain, Aug. 13.—(P)—Rebel bombardment of San Sebastian by air today led to a government threat to execute 700 Fascist hostages if the city is shelled from the sea.

An aerial attack from five planes which dropped nearly 100 bombs left the inhabitants of San Sebastian and Irún in panic, it was reported.

The ultimatum threatening the hostages was served upon the rebel guns trained on the city.

The cruiser demanded surrender of the Loyalists to prevent further bombardment.

Officers of the British Destroyer Comet said the government at Santander had converted a freighter into a prison ship and held 700 Fascists and Carlists.

The Loyalist leaders notified the commander of the Almirante Cervera that the entire shipload of hostages would be executed if San Sebastian was shelled.

Eight persons were reported killed in the bombardment of San Sebastian and several important centers were struck. Loyalist leaders at Irún said the aerial attack did little damage there.

San Sebastian was described as in a desperate situation by two foreign diplomats, who alone were permitted to pass through the city today.

Water shortage and diminishing food supplies were expected to hasten the collapse of government resistance in the area if the Fascists pushed their offensive on land, by sea and from the air.

The main boulevard, the one-time vacation residence of Alfonso of Spain and the airport were struck by the Fascists. Santa Maria church and Oviedo Street were damaged.

Three Fascist planes followed up the air attack on San Sebastian by bombing Irún. The projectiles, however, did little damage according to members of the Popular Front.

In the new advance, insurgent troops were fighting their way through the hills which they fled yesterday. Loyalist snipers slowed the march.

Vallabona was taken yesterday with almost no resistance.

Five Confess To Big Swindle in Chicago Court

Pseudo-Lawyer Obtains $9,451 from Court Clerk

Chicago, Aug. 13.—(P)—Five men tonight confessed participation in a swindle in which a pseudo-lawyer, armed with a court order obtained by fraud, walked out of the clerk of circuit court's office last January with $9,451.

Eugene J. O'Connor, investigator for the state's attorney, announced Arvil Nichols, 43, a tavern owner, had confessed representing himself as an attorney to get the order from Judge G. Fred Rush.

O'Connor said confessions also had been obtained from John Dicks, 48, acting cashier of the clerk's office; James Tilton, 74, a disbarred attorney; Benjamin Shear, 42, a WPA worker, and Ernest Eckel, 43, a tavern keeper.

The swindle was not discovered until June, when heirs of the late Wm. Williams presented a court order awarding them the funds, which had been in litigation. They were told the money had been claimed six months before.

Investigation of the case was revived last week when a suit involving Eckel's tavern came before Judge Rush and a court attaché connected Eckel's name with the fact he had been arrested previously in connection with a swindle. During the hearing, mention was made of a $500 bill, which Eckel said belonged to him personally and was not part of the partnership funds.

Eckel was arrested again, and the others were rounded up over a period of several days.

Will Extradite Alleged Slayer

Olympia, Wash., Aug. 14.—(P)—Gov. Clarence D. Martin's office said today Laverne Marks, 19, serving a 20-year prison sentence for the robbery of a Tacoma taxicab driver, would be extradited to Wisconsin to face first degree murder charges provided that state guarantees his return to Washington if he is found innocent of the murder.

Marks, arrested in Tacoma two weeks ago, confessed he shot and killed Robert Bernstein, his 24-year-old boyhood chum, while they were on a fishing trip. Bernstein's body was found later.

The attorney general's office said they would prepare a formal opinion as to the procedure in removing Marks from the state prison.

Aged Man Claims Woman Deeded To Him By Father

Charles H. Davis Sentenced To Three Months in Boston Jail

Boston, Aug. 13.—(P)—Charles H. Davis, 79, who claimed a 22 year old woman with whom he was arrested in his home here last night was "deeded" to him, went to jail for three months today.

Judge Albert Hayden, who sentenced him, committed the girl, Miss Bertha McLeod, to the psychopathic hospital.

Police reported they found Davis, former theatrical scenery painter, and the girl living together. They arrested them just after Davis said he had obtained a license to marry Miss McLeod.

Both the woman and Davis declared their love for each other today—and she nodded affirmation as Davis told police of the "deed" by which he said her father, John D. McLeod, gave her to him four years ago "to adopt or to marry."

Last month Davis filed application to wed Miss McLeod but the license was held up because of an alleged error in addresses. Upon his arrest yesterday Davis declared they would be married when the matter was "cleared up."

Conservatory Music

Notes of a literary nature concerning the Illinois Conservatory of Music appeared Thursday for the first time during the summer months. They were largely of vacation gossip about instructors in the departments, but also included the announcement, "The Conservatory will open September 22."

In the category of cultural activities which Jacksonville will begin this fall, none is more enjoyable and delightfully instructive than the concerts, recitals and sponsored entertainments of the music school.

October 2 the Don Cossacs Russian chorus opens the professional attractions which will appear at intervals throughout the winter.

The members of the faculty, skilled in their own artistry and enjoying a large following among townspeople, will be presented in recitals. Senior and junior students will also appear in recital.

The intellectual life of a community is particularly enriched by the quality of its music. Its enthusiasm for progress is illustrated by the support given to this activity. The Conservatory has been valuable in contributing to these two attributes in the past, and may be looked to as a source for these good things again this year.

Breath of Autumn

As the middle of August draws on apace, and the unfortunate "Hay fever" victims begin storing away handkerchiefs against the annual sniffles, a breath of good news comes whirling in on the pollen laden air.

It seems that the term "hay fever" is no longer acceptable in the ranks of high society, for if little can be done to ward off the aggravation, at least it can be dressed up and paraded about with a more ritzy title.

"Pollinosis," we find, is a much more accurate term for most of the multitudinous diseases classed under the general category of "hay fever," and which can be caused by nearly anything from pollen off the common ragweed to dust from humming birds' wings.

But cheer up, there's still another barrel. Statistics show that ragweed is the cause of ninety percent of the suffering. Pollinosis caused by hay or goldenrod is very rare. And ragweed, unlike the plebeian "hay," can be dressed up to fit into the new picture we're drawing. Ragweed, scientifically, is not ragweed at all, but "ubiquitous abrosia."

Chautauquas as Business

Business men and friends of the idea united their efforts at Petersburg to produce a chautauqua at Old Salem this year which the two groups gave free to the people.

It is an interesting experiment. It removes from chautauquas one of the great drawbacks—that of soliciting funds for its support, while the show is going on. The drives to sell tickets just when everyone was getting pretty much fed up on the whole thing was one of the most bitter experiences for those who attended the chautauquas.

Just how this system of financing a show will work out remains to be seen. Old Salem has a reputation for its famous chautauquas, and in the past when this event was staged, it was the high point of season.

Russia Recognizes Roosevelt

Communist Russia is supporting the Blum government in France, the Azana-Quiroga government in Spain, and the Roosevelt administration in the United States. The motives in France and Spain can be discussed later. Americans are interested in the motives here. Why do the communists desire the reelection of Mr. Roosevelt?

A bulletin issued by the communist international headquarters in Moscow states the reasons: "The decision of the comintern to join the workers' organizations in supporting Roosevelt is not because we endorse his policies or intend to stand responsible for his actions. We are going to work for the election of Roosevelt because we wish to strengthen our influence among America's many radical groups. We all have a common aim. It is to defeat Landon, who represents forces which oppose the development of class war and revolution in America."

Early in his administration Mr. Roosevelt recognized Russia diplomatically and sent over an ambassador, Mr. Bullitt. In a much more realistic sense Russia recognized Mr. Roosevelt. Max Litvinof, the cunningest foreign minister in Europe, came over here and visited the White House. Comrade Litvinof recognized Mr. Roosevelt at sight. Stalin recognized him from early reports, filled in with later details. Mr. Roosevelt was a familiar figure to the communists. He was a developer. They are finishers. Mr. Roosevelt was Kerensky, the man who started things he couldn't finish, who released forces he could not control, and who was swept aside when he had opened the way for revolutionaries who could finish and mop up.

The communists believe that Lewis, Hillman, and the other unionists who have rebelled against the American Federation of Labor and form the committee for industrial organization and the workers' nonpartisan league are training the proletariat for revolution and a class war. They believe that Secretary Wallace and Mr. Tugwell are preparing the farmers for an attack upon the industrialists. Mr. Roosevelt's princes of privilege and economic royalists. Many of Mr. Roosevelt's phrases give great encouragement to Moscow.

In the Farmer-Labor party the Russians see what to them would be a union of workers and peasants, the foundation of a dictatorship of the proletariat. They know that Mr. Roosevelt supports Lewis and that his secretary of labor, Miss Perkins, encourages the movement. Wallace and Tugwell are Mr. Roosevelt's favored administrators.

The New Deal is so frankly collectivist that the Russians could not mistake its purpose. Mr. Wallace says that the Marxist ideas would be modified to suit American temperament and adjusted to American conditions. That the Russians would recognize as the start desired. The communist bulletin warns against attaching the familiar tags to movements fostered in the United States. These are not to be known as communist or socialist. The familiar slogans are not to be used. The workers are not to expound Marxian doctrines.

The appearance of the communists on a new front is easily explained by events. They have not changed their minds but they have changed their methods, believing that three countries, France, Spain, and the United States, are shaping their destinies so as inevitably to make the red flag their national emblem and the commissars their governors. In Premier Blum of France, President Azana and Premier Quirora of Spain, and Mr. Roosevelt of the United States they recognize those fateful figures of history who overthrow an established order, who can do that but nothing more. Then it is a tossup whether the dictatorship is communist or Fascist.

Spain has its class war now. France may be approaching one. The communists are not fools. They know that democracy is much safer in the United States. They know it may save itself. They know that the American people are safe if they are not incited against each other, if they are spared a panic, if they are not overwhelmed, as Germany was, by financial disaster, if they keep their heads, their footing, and their tried form of government. The Russians are for Mr. Roosevelt because they think that inevitably he must, with another four years, produce the conditions most favorable to them. —Chicago Tribune.

Swing of Labor Vote to Roosevelt Doesn't Add Up as Clear Profit—Lewis and Green Clash May Help Republicans; Middle Class Ballots May Offset Support of Unions

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal and Courier Washington Correspondent

Washington—Few politicians have any more doubt as to where the bulk of the labor vote is going. The question most at issue is whether when organized labor aligns itself rather solidly behind one presidential candidate, there won't be sufficient adverse reaction from farmers and other middle-class voters to offset the effect.

A secret poll of the seventeen members of the American Federation of Labor's executive council recently showed that all but two favored endorsement of Roosevelt by the council. This was especially significant, as the council includes but one member of the Committee for Industrial Organization, whose leaders have been foremost in the pro-Roosevelt activities of Labor's Non-Partisan League.

The council, however, is practically certain to refrain from such endorsement. The big obstacle is the fact that President "Big Bill" Hutcheson of the council, one of the three or four most powerful members of the council, has threatened to take his union out of the A. F. of L. if the council comes out for Roosevelt.

Hutcheson is chief of the Republican National committee's labor division. The other council member who opposes endorsement of Roosevelt is John Coffield, head of the plumbers' union.

Green for Roosevelt

President William Green of the A. F. of L. is a lifelong Democrat and has declared personally for Roosevelt, as have twenty state federations of labor, with more to come. Few of the big labor leaders who have announced for the president can be properly classified as either Republicans or Democrats. Figuring from a strictly practical point of view, they think they have "gotten more out of" Roosevelt than they would be likely to get from Landon.

There is plenty of comfort for Republicans, however. It has yet to be demonstrated that either a political or other movement of organized labor is likely to attract general support outside labor ranks.

The popularity of Calvin Coolidge after he received credit for breaking the Boston police strike is a case in point. Support of labor may lose Roosevelt many votes.

Lewis' Foes May "Turn"

Possibility that some crafts union leaders may turn against Roosevelt because they believe he is too sympathetic to John Lewis and industrial unionism may or may not materialize. Feeling among some labor leaders is bitter and some of them aren't acting at all calmly.

Green himself flew off the handle at a press conference when a newspaperman, generally considered as well informed on labor questions as anyone in Washington, asked him who appointed the credentials committee at the A. F. of L. convention—the committee which will pass on eligibility of C. I. O. union delegates and a committee which under by-laws is appointed by Green himself.

Public Sale, Tues., Aug. 18, 1:30 p. m., 327 S. East St. Mrs. J. G. Kuppler, Elmer Midden-dorf, Auctioneer.

"You know the answer to that, —" replied Green bitterly. "You're just trying to discredit me!"

The correspondent said he wanted to apologize in case he had caused any embarrassment and then asked Green for an apology, which he didn't get.

Snubs for John L.

Later that evening Lewis was sitting in Harvey's restaurant after dinner with two friends when four persons he knew came in.

Mrs. William Hutcheson passed by with her nose slightly tilted. President Dan Tracy of the electrical workers' union bowed. President Henry Bates of the bricklayers, masons' and plasterers' union greeted Lewis warmly. President Hutcheson of the carpenters' union, who was snubbed by Lewis at the last A. F. of L. convention, stared straight ahead.

Others in the dining room, recognizing all parties concerned, merely snickered. (Copyright, 1936, NEA Service, Inc.)

Dow Youth, 18, Dies As Result of Auto Accident Injuries

Addison McCalla Succumbs in Altou Hospital Tuesday Night After Crash

Jerseyville—Addison McCalla of Dow, eighteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan McCalla, died Tuesday evening at 10:15 o'clock at St. Joseph's Hospital in Altou, of injuries sustained early Monday morning in the collision of the Chevrolet he was driving with a transport truck driven by Norman G. Dean of New Salem, Ill.

The accident occurred about one hundred yards south of Tourville on U. S. Highway 67 only a short distance from the home of Walter St. Peters, an uncle of the deceased.

McCalla was enroute to his home in Dow from Altou where he had been in the employ of the Laclede Steel Company and the truck driven by Dean was enroute to the National Stock Yards in East St. Louis. Dean was accompanied by Andrew Wilson, also of New Salem.

The truck was a double decker built for cattle transportation, and at the time of the collision held a load of about forty hogs. When the truck and McCalla's automobile collided the truck overturned and the hogs were released. They scattered in the neighborhood, but later were rounded up and placed in a pen at the Walter St. Peter place, to await another truck to transport them to market.

McCalla's car, a sedan was badly wrecked. The top was torn from the body and the motor badly damaged. The fronts of the sedan and truck were locked together by the impact and it was necessary for garagemen who were called to the scene of the accident to pry the vehicles apart before they could be removed from the highway.

McCalla was removed in an unconscious condition to St. Joseph's Hospital where his condition was pronounced critical. He failed to regain consciousness. Dean's injuries consisted of minor cuts and Wilson was uninjured.

Funeral services for McCalla will be held this afternoon at two o'clock from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Newbern, Rev. W. L. Hanbaum officiating.

Different Types of Kidney Disturbance Require Individual Treatment

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEE
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygieia, the Health Magazine

Kidney disease is not so simple as it sounds. There are many types of kidney trouble, and, accordingly, a thorough examination is necessary before any doctor can determine the particular type of kidney disturbance a person has.

Both microscopic and chemical tests of the fluid from each kidney have to be made separately, and the organs must be put to what are called functional tests, to determine their ability to get rid of fluid and other waste material from the body.

There are many different ways of causing increased amounts of water to flow through the kidneys. Taking an extra supply of water will do this; as will the taking of concentrated solutions of sugar, coffee, or tea, or large amounts of beer or mineral water.

All these methods act in different ways, however, and what may be good for one type of kidney disease may be entirely wrong for another. Sometimes a person will accumulate a considerable amount of water in the tissues after taking common salt, but not after taking any other kind.

Nowadays, there are preparations of mercury which have the power of stimulating the body to rid itself of large quantities of fluid. Doctors may use these preparations, giving them either by mouth or by injection directly into the blood of the patient.

But this must be done always under suitable control, because the wrong use of a remedy may be more dangerous than failure to use it at all.

Diseases of the kidney may be insidious from the beginning. For that reason every person, but more especially those past middle age, should arrange to have the work of the kidney and its excretions studied at least once, if not twice, every year.

In this way the beginning of any such condition as I have described may be discovered and proper treatment applied while there is plenty of time to save life and restore health.

WHY PUT UP WITH PIMPLES, WRINKLES AND A SALLOW SKIN?

So many women throw their charm and beauty away—look years older than they are—because they neglect common constipation. They forget that badly balanced meals, over a period of years, can change how they look and feel.

Often their menus lack the "bulk" needed for regular habits. Then constipation, the beauty-killer, sets in. Other effects may be headaches, listlessness, sleeplessness.

Get "bulk" back into your meals with a delicious cereal: Kellogg's All-Bran. It absorbs moisture within the body, forms a soft mass, gently cleanses the system.

Just eat two spoonfuls daily, either as a cereal or in cooked dishes. ALL-BRAN is guaranteed. Try it a week. If not satisfactory, your money will be refunded by the Kellogg Company. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Jersey to Continue Projects with WPA

County Board Votes to Get $3,500 to Carry on Work; Other News

Jerseyville.—Works Progress Administration projects in Jersey county will be continued as a result of the action of the county board of supervisors at their meeting in this city Tuesday afternoon. The board voted to borrow the sum of $3500 to be used as the county's part of projects now underway in the county and incomplete.

A large amount of all weather road has been constructed in Jersey county under the works progress plan, but money for the continuation of projects became exhausted, and cessation was imminent.

The action of the county board will mean the continuation of work of road building now underway.

In addition to the works progress loan voted, the board appointed John R. Kessinger of McCluskey as constable for Mississippi township to fill an existing vacancy. The vacancy was created when Lawrence Darr failed to qualify after being elected to the position in 1933.

The board also adopted a resolution regarding blind pension compensation regulating the amount to be received by blind beneficiaries from twenty five cents a day to one dollar based on the need of the applicant.

Old Age Pensions
John Bloomer, Jr., chairman of the Jersey County Public Welfare Commission announced this week that on August 1st, Old Age Pension recipients in this county received checks amounting to $956.

Bloomer and his assistant, Miss Florence Edwards, have completed the investigation of most of the applications filed by persons over seventy-five years of age and from now on the applications will be investigated according to number. Approximately seven cases a day are being completed, and at a meeting of the board Tuesday sixty-three applications were passed upon and will be submitted to the state department.

School Opening Dates
Most of the rural schools in Jersey county will open for the 1936-37 term on Friday, September 4th.

The purpose in convening classes at this time is that the students may secure a list of the school supplies they will need and secure them in time for classes on the following Monday morning.

The Jerseyville city schools will open for the coming term on Monday, August 31st.

A meeting of all rural teachers in the county will be held in the Circuit Court room in Jerseyville at two o'clock Saturday afternoon August 29th, for instructions as to the school routine for the year and to receive supplies.

CHAPTER I

IT was the end of the season. Reason enough, Molly told herself, for feeling tired and rebellious and dissatisfied. Debut time was almost over. And what had it got her?

A lei of orchids, petals only slightly crushed by last night's wearing, met her eyes. They had been placed on the window ledge through habit. Rita, her maid, would wear them some place to-night when she stepped out after serving hours.

There would be more orchids for Molly, arriving in glittering cellophane covering from Wick. Or gardenias from Donald. Or perhaps yellow rosebuds from Brent. Or violets, waxy green leaves curled about their deep purple hearts, from Hubert who was romantic, like his flowers.

Debut had brought her Wick, Donald, Hubert, Brent—and the others. The other men were like lesser stars twinkling against the definite, authentic brightness of desirability represented by the quartet.

Wickersham Ross was wealthy, handsome and nice. Donald Livingston represented the inner circle of the "four hundred," a small, hand-picked group that claimed top place socially through right of heritage, boasting ancestral lines that stretched into a past so dim it shouldn't have mattered in modern times. Yet somehow it did. Tremendously. All the famous families would open their arms to Donald's wife, Donald, arrogant, cocksure, correct, with his splendid old town house that was frightfully in need of redecorating, and his country place where he entertained frequently, keeping up a pretense of a comfortable income. Donald had found it necessary to retrench for some vague reasons concerned with stocks and bonds.

HUBERT WALLACE was just a debutante rusher. This year he had picked Molly. Hubert was a good playfellow, but perhaps after a time you would become tired of a life that was an endless merry-go-round, and then where would you be?

"Golden girl!" She could hear Hubert's caressing voice, now. "Marry me, and you'll dine on strawberries and cream like the good little girl in the nursery rhyme."

"No thanks," Molly had retorted. "Strawberries give me indigestion and cream might make me fat. I'm not a good little girl, and I'm too old for nursery rhymes."

Brent Stuart, who had been listening in on one of Hubert's numerous and quite casual proposals, had queried, "What do you want, child? What kind of girl are you?"

"Don't know, to both your questions," Molly had replied. "I want to find out."

Molly.

Thinking about Brent's nice matter-of-factness stilled for the moment the tumult in her mind, a tumult started often these days by the sight of flowers and their small white cards with their scrawled messages. They raised interrogation marks, these small white symbols of a decision she must make soon.

For, of course, every girl should end her debut with an announcement of her engagement. That was what debuts were for!

In Molly's case it was more urgent. It was two years now since her father's marriage to Donna, who was only five years older than herself. Donna was getting sick and tired of a stepmother role. It aged her a bit. Pressure, subtle as it was, was being brought to bear on Molly toward a decision.

"Goodness, Molly," Donna had said. "What is the matter with you? Four of the season's most eligible men at your heels and you can't make up your mind. You could draw straws and win a husband any girl would be proud to get."

MOLLY stirred restlessly on her pillow. It wouldn't be Hubert, who babbled things like "Golden Girl" at her. Nor Wick, with his casual acceptance of her as a suitable wife. Nor Donald, with his suave flattery and appraising eyes. That, of course, left Brent. Brent, with his teasing, gray eyes, his good-looking, but not hero-hand-some face, his strong man's shoulders. The thought of Brent both steadied and stimulated Molly. Strange. But Brent was like that.

There was just one thing wrong with choosing Brent. You couldn't accept a man who hadn't asked you to marry him. Donna didn't know that, and persisted in the theory that Brent was in a sort of delirium about Molly.

And all the time there was Brent with his big-brother-like devotion that might mean something and might mean nothing at all. Perhaps she didn't want it to mean anything. Brent wouldn't call her "Golden Girl." But he'd be certain to call her "child," as he had done ever since Molly was 12 and he was a perfectly mad-dening and insulting 16 years old. Who wanted to be called "child" all her life?

Strangely, he hadn't mocked at the name Hubert had suggested during an intermission at Molly's debut ball. "Golden hair, golden eyes with amber lights, golden skin," Hubert had said softly. "Sounds Chinese," Molly had laughed.

"Not yellow. Golden," Brent had corrected. "You have a sunny kind of skin and it's deeper gold when you put on tan in the summer."

"Why, Brent!" Molly had exclaimed. This from matter-of-fact Brent Stuart!

If he should ever propose and if Molly said yes, she would live in that fine old home of Brent's, with its mellow paneling and gracious air of age and dignity. A house that was the proper setting for the son of a famous architect, who was making a name for himself in the same profession.

THE telephone tinkled and she heard Rita, the maid, answering.

"I'm awake, Rita," called Molly. Anything was better than going over the same ground and getting no where—no where beyond men and flowers and telephones . . . and security.

That was it! Molly wanted a dangerous current in her life. Something to stir her pulses—not this smooth, endless succession of parties and parties, leading finally to a brilliant wedding.

The voice over the wire was only Hubert's.

"Sorry," Molly told him, trying to keep boredom from her tone. "I don't feel up to luncheon today. Give me a rain check, won't you, Hubert?"

Just being polite. The conversation of their crowd was always polite and meaningless, when it wasn't brittle and stinging.

"Sometime I'll be so bored and bitter that the claws will come out. I'll be like Sophy and Barbara and Donna," Molly thought. You couldn't help feeling sorry for Donna, who had gone hither and yon, after an unsuccessful debut, but had finally attached Dad and his millions. Though perhaps marrying one of the richest men in the country (that was what the newspapers and income tax people said), hadn't been a bad compromise for missing romance.

The telephone again. Molly answered and felt a pleasant, reassuring feeling rushing over her. That couldn't mean anything more than devotion, since it lacked the strong, wind-in-your-ears sensation which any girl knew meant being in love!

"Hi, mutt! I'm coming out. I won't be taken for granted this way," Molly thought, suddenly mutinous. Aloud she replied sweetly, "No, you aren't. I'm feeling not so top, Brent. Cold and headache."

"Rebellion," declared Brent firmly. "I know the symptoms." (To Be Continued)

CHAPTER I-A

MOLLY laughed at Brent's reply. That was the nice thing about Brent. He understood, without being angry.

"Is it a headache, cold and rebellion that will continue until evening?" Brent inquired pleasantly. "Because it occurs to me at the moment that I'm taking you to Peggy Carlyle's dance."

"Good memory," Molly answered. "Your name's on my date book, too. As a matter of fact, Brent, I've decided to skip Peggy's dance."

"You can't do that!" Brent exclaimed. "Besides being a date, it's a special kind of date. You know I always spend your birthday with you."

"Just an old childish custom," Molly replied coolly. "Anyway, I didn't say I wouldn't spend my birthday with you. I'm counting on your skipping the dance with me."

"Oh, you are," Brent spoke slowly. "Naturally. You don't sound very enthusiastic."

"What's on your mind?" "I'm planning to celebrate differently," Molly explained eagerly. "Frances Carter was telling me about that new night club near Beechland—the 'Red Poppy.' Frances said it was terrific."

"It is," Brent's voice came grimly over the phone. "No place for you to go."

"And why not?" "You young idiot. That place is in danger of being raided any time. How would you like to wake up behind bars?"

"I wouldn't mind a bit. At least, it would be a new experience."

"Well, I won't take you to a place like that."

"You won't?" There was a dangerous inflection in Molly's voice.

"No. Besides Peggy's party is one I can't miss. Perhaps it has slipped your memory that I'm doing the alteration on the Carter country place."

"Business before pleasure, of course. I'm not going to the Carter's tonight. Why don't you ask Evelyn Lester to take my place? She adores dances—and you."

"Am I to understand you don't?" Brent laughed.

Molly considered a moment. "I don't adore dances tonight, and I adore you only with qualifications."

"Be reasonable, Molly!" "Hope you like the dance," Molly said.

Brent seemed brightly uncrushed. "See you soon."

Molly laughed at Brent's reply. That was the nice thing about Brent. He understood, without being angry.

take me, somebody else will. I'm being cheated. Kept housed up like—like an orchid."

On an impulse, she lifted the orchids and dropped them into a dainty, be-ribboned waste basket near her dressing table. Then she stooped and retrieved them. Rita adored orchids, even second-hand ones. She possessed a Latin capacity for emotion that Molly sometimes envied. Rita would step out with her young man and they would go places.

"And that," Molly decided, "is what I'm going to do tonight—go places!"

She came from her shower more golden than ever, eyes shining, and sparklin' drops of water clinging to her burnished hair.

The third telephone call brought Wick's voice. "Lo! night owl."

A proper salutation that hinted Wick credited her with a degree of sophistication. Neither did Wick howl with amusement at the idea that she could be satiated with social events.

"Skipping Peggy's dance?" he queried and added, "I'll skip it with you."

Wick hesitated only a moment. "Right-o," he agreed. "It isn't the sort of night club I'd pick for you, but it might be exciting. Is that what you'd like?"

"Like is the wrong word. I crave excitement. Doesn't anything ever happen except dances, receptions, teas and cocktail parties?"

"I have an idea plenty happens at the Red Poppy. As I said, it isn't the sort of place we'd generally go to."

"That's why we're going!" Molly cried. "Oh, Wick, this is going to be the nicest birthday I've ever had. I'm celebrating the end of my teens with a mature kind of adventure."

"Your birthday! I guess that calls for about 20 orchids," Wick teased.

"No orchids tonight. This must be different. Is this place so very terrible?" Molly's eager voice urged him on.

"Wait and see!"

afternoon, bringing Brent's gift. Molly gasped, frowned, and then laughed. The idiot! He must have spent the whole day assembling this ridiculous home-made marionette theater. The setting for the tiny actors was a lurid dive, with bizarre colors and tiny, absurd pictures on the wall which carried out a very wicked atmosphere. The small puppets, themselves, were perfectly cast.

One, when manipulated properly with a string, lurched toward a couple sitting at a table, and dangled a dreadful looking miniature knife. Another miniature gentleman never could be made to stand on his legs, but toppled and staggered in the most inebricated manner.

Molly regarded one of the tiny actors with suspicious eyes. A golden-haired puppet staring out at the scene with wide, excited eyes. "Might as well be tagged 'Molly,'" she thought.

"Stay home, child, and amuse yourself with this small edition of night life," read Brent's card.

"Child!" Molly's soft, red lips closed firmly. "That's exactly what he thinks I am."

She put Brent's gift back in the big box and closed the top. After a moment, she took the miniature theater out again and soon was deeply engrossed in making the tiny actors perform.

"But if he thinks for a moment I'm going to spend my birthday pulling strings, he's mistaken."

ANOTHER package followed within an hour. "Wanted to spend your birthday with you," Brent had written on the card. "Since I can't, I'm sending a proxy." The package disclosed a photograph—Brent, of course.

"Of all the concealed idiots," Molly breathed. "I suppose he thinks I'll put this on my dressing table where I'll have to look at it every time I powder my nose. Well, I won't!"

A third package arrived at 7. A beautifully bound and rare first edition. "Just to make up for those two terrible gifts, and also to carry you through a lonesome evening," Molly read.

"So he thinks!" Molly said to herself, dusting powder on her face, and this time carefully avoiding Brent's steady gray eyes, looking out at her from the dressing table.

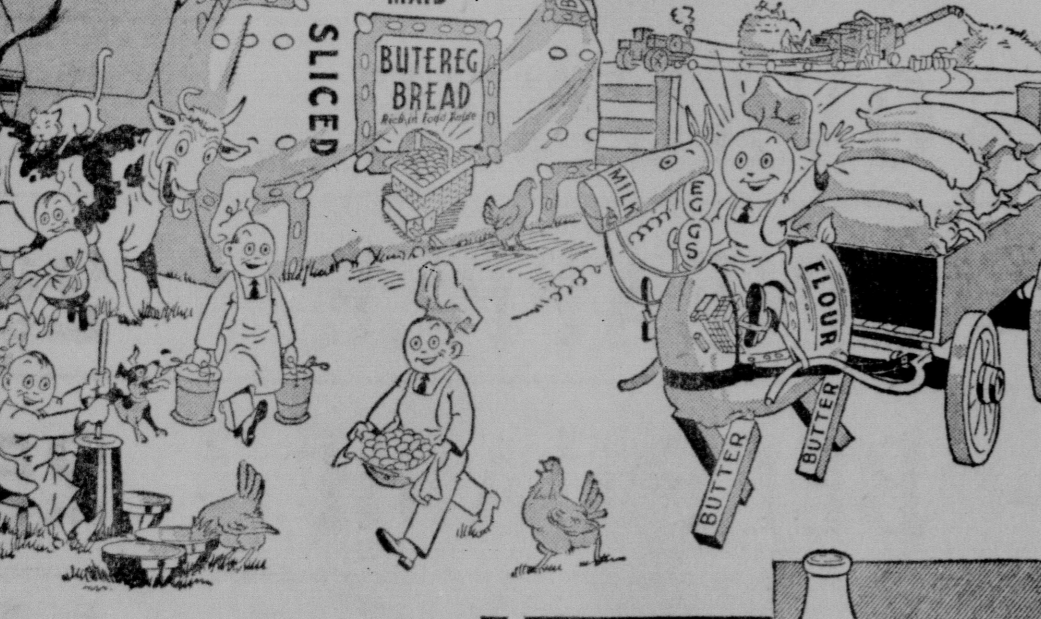

Brent was a dear and the book was a gem. But she mustn't forget how stubborn and unyielding he had been. It was going to be fun tonight.

It was going to be even more fun tomorrow to tell that obstinate would-be-protector about it. How she had not only seen wicked night life, but had rubbed elbows with it.

Wick had said: "Wait and see!" Well, she was waiting!

The date of the Don Cossics Russian Chorus, which opens the current season's Artist Series, will be Friday evening, October 2, instead of the first announced date, September 15. This change was made necessary on account of the chorus' engagement at the Texas Centennial.

Old World and the New Meet at Cleveland Expo

Pagodas, chateaus and chalets and other quaint, foreign structures in the foreground, factory buildings and skyscrapers in the distance—this unusual contrast between the Old World and the New is apparent at a glance in the picturesque photo, above, of one of the colorful Streets of the World at the Great Lakes Exposition in Cleveland. Only a few short blocks separate the lakefront site of the huge show from the city's downtown section.

2,071 Persons Get Relief Aid During Month from County

New Relief Organization Files First Report with IERC

A total of 2,071 persons received aid from the new county relief administration during the first month of its existence, according to a report filed yesterday by Bradford Turner, head of the county department, with the Illinois Emergency Relief Administration. The county spent a total of $3,772.75 for relief during July.

The report shows a total case load of 722, considerably lower than the number carried under the former plan of relief administration. The load was divided into two classes, that of home relief in which there were listed 678 cases covering 2,027 persons, and institutional welfare, in which there were 44 cases covering the same number of people.

Home relief costs during the month were $6,790.02, and the institutional cases caused an expenditure of $443.97, the report shows. Dividing the home relief cases into groups, the county administration found that there were 392 cases of unemployment relief, covering 1,414 persons, for which the county spent $6,778.65, and 285 welfare home cases covering 602 persons, for which the county administration did not spend money. There was only one case in the county where the relief administrators found that it was necessary to render aid in addition to the salary obtained by a WPA worker. Eleven persons were involved in the single case, at an expense to the county of $11.34.

Administrative costs during the first month amounted to $1,283.76, and the administrative costs for institutional cases amounted to $225.

Examining the purposes for which the administration spent money, the county department head found that $5,749.93 went for food, $96 for fuel, $1.34 for shoes and clothing, $68 for medical care, and all other items of expense amounted to $1,318.72. The administrators were required to spend considerable money during the first month for supplies and some equipment, items which it will not be necessary to purchase during the coming months.

Examination of the cases for relief revealed that most of the cases were the result of loss of welfare support. There were 285 cases classified under this heading. Loss of farm employment was the next largest contributor to the causes, 225 cases falling under this heading. There were 118 cases resulting from the loss of industrial employment, and 50 cases from the loss of work through the expiration of WPA projects.

There were 106 new cases and 572 re-opened cases listed for the month. Commenting on the report, Mr. Turner stated that the county has its hands tied in the amount of money it can spend. The county has just so much money to spend, and must make that amount go as far as possible, he said.

Sam Haynes, of Columbus, Ohio, who was judge of the horse show at the Morgan County Fair last year, has been reapportioned to serve in that capacity at this year's show. It was announced yesterday morning by Roy E. Welch, secretary of the Fair Association.

New Dance Hall is Planned on W. State

P.R. Briggs Remodeling Part of Odd Fellows Hall for Winter Use

Extensive remodeling work is in progress at the former Odd Fellows Hall on West State Street under the direction of P. R. Briggs, who plans to open a dance hall there sometime during September.

A hard maple floor is being laid and a large space for dancing has been cleared by taking out partitions. Venetian blinds and heavy draperies at the windows are part of the decorations planned by Mr. Briggs. Lounge rooms are being prepared for the dancers, and an orchestra platform is to be constructed at the west end of the hall.

Ol Spaulding, who is in charge of the Nichols Park dances, will be in charge of the new hall during the winter.

A legend of Mohammedans teaches that every one of the faithful will be rewarded in the Moslem heaven with a harem of 72 beautiful damsels, endowed with perpetual youth.

Murders occur in the United States on an average of one every 90 minutes. China has an area of 4,000,000 square miles.

"What a Money-Saver Dodge Is!"

says MRS. MARY RANSON SMITH, Peoria, New York.

I'm delighted with our new Dodge! In the first place it's such a gorgeous-looking car. I doubt whether we could find greater riding comfort in any other car...

...It handles like a dream...so easy to steer and shift gears...and the brakes are marvelous...and what a money-saver it is...

We haven't had to add any oil between regular changes... What's more, our Dodge is giving us at least 7 more miles to the gallon of gas than our old car. No wonder they call it the Money-Saving Dodge!

Al Thomas Holds Commies To Seven Hits While His Teammates Collect Ten

Chicago, Aug. 13.—(P)—Al Thomas checked the Chicago White Sox with seven hits today as the St. Louis Browns pounded out a 7 to 3 victory to win the three game series, two games to one.

Johnny Whitehead started for the Sox and held the Browns to two hits in five innings but Julius Solters' thirteenth home run of the season with two on in the sixth gave the Browns three runs.

Bill Shores pitched the last two frames and yielded three more runs on four hits in the eighth.

Mrs. Henry Werries of the Ebenezer neighborhood was a shopper in the city yesterday.

Charles Wasieleski, rookie tackle from Colgate, was the only absentee besides Ward. Wasieleski is one of the 52 players elected to the College All-Stars by the 10,000,000 fans who took part in the balloting. He will report to the Lions immediately after the game.

Twenty veterans and 18 rookies took part in the opening rehearsal. All the newcomers, even Quarterbacks Reino Norri, of DeKalb, and Kenneth Wilson, of McKendree, are big.

An unexpected gap in the Lions' lineup was created by the absence of Elmer Ward, who alternated at center last year. Ward recently underwent a knee operation, and will not be ready to play for several weeks. Two rookies, Del Ritchhardt, of Colorado College, and Charles Hanneman, of Michigan Normal, will get the first crack at the job.

Chicago, Aug. 13.—(P)—The Giants' of second place and three away from the Gas House Gang.

The Phils made a desperate effort in the ninth inning, after Rookie Bill Atwood's pinch homer in the seventh had kept them within striking distance, but Gus Mancuso took Dolph Camilli's foul to end the closing threat. Chuck Klein led the Phils' attack with four hits.

Singles by Sam Leslie, Jackson and Smith brought in the first two Giant runs off Joe Bowman in the second, and Dick Bartell's single, Smith's walk and Joe Moore's base hit added another in the fourth. The three-run rally in the fifth wound up the New York scoring.

The Phils finally got to Smith in the third, pushing a run over on two hits and a pair of Giant errors. They scored one each in the sixth, seventh and ninth to finish up.

Co-Captain Ray Smith, of the Illinois college football team, spent the summer at the University of Illinois, taking some coaching courses. He is planning to bring his wife with him this fall when he comes back to Illinois college to take his final year of work.

Vernon Ford, the other co-captain, has been spending the summer here also. He expects to be in top shape when Coach Ray Nussickel calls the boys out for the first practice.

A lot of folks around here recall when Patsy Clark, who will coach the Detroit Lions against the College All-Stars for the game in Chicago, was a star on the Williams and Vashit college teams. There were three Clark brothers, Patsy, Stewart and Jerry. Patsy later made his name at the University of Illinois.

Kenneth "Spike" Wilson, McKendree's rabbit football player, has reported to the Lions, and fully intends to make that team before the season closes. The Lions are training at Cranbrook, Michigan.

According to published reports, Dick Bennett, Springfield high's hard running halfback, will enroll at St. John's Military Academy this fall for a year of prepping for university football.

Indians Blank Tigers 8 to 0

Cleveland, Aug. 13.—(P)—Johnny Allen, the Yankees' pitching castoff, limited the Detroit Tigers to four hits today as he hurled the Indians to an 8 to 0 victory, his ninth straight and 15th of the season.

With the league-leading Yankees idle, the win put the second place Indians 11 games back of the pace.

Allen fanned six Tiger batters to take over the league's strikeout lead with a total of 121.

The Tribe pounded Schoolboy Rowe, Joe Sullivan and Clarence Phillips for 18 hits in taking the odd game of the series.

All of the Tigers' four hits were singles. For five innings they went hitless as Allen mowed them down without trouble.

The Indians, meantime, got to Rowe early, belting him out in the fourth. They scored two runs in the second on four straight singles by Roy Weatherly, Billy Sullivan, Joe Vosmik and Bill Knickerbocker, and showed three more over in the fourth on Sullivan's double, Vosmik's fly, singles by Knickerbocker and Roy Hughes, and "Bad News" Hale's two-bagger.

Another three-run spree in the fifth wound up the scoring, with Vosmik doubling to score Weatherly, who had walked, and Sullivan, who had singled, and Allen sending Vosmik home with a bunt down the third base line.

It was a little more than two weeks ago that talk got around that "Sunny Jim" was through and would hang up his uniform in favor of life on his farm at Bourbon, Mo. The report turned out to be slightly exaggerated; Jim not only kept on playing, but played better than ever. He has been hitting better than 500 ever since.

However, there isn't much doubt but that this is Jim's last season as a full time player. He is bothered with a lame back and his legs don't perform as they once did. That being the case, St. Louis fans got the idea that something ought to be done in honor of the pride of Nokomis, Ill., and Bourbon, Mo.

Ball players have had "days" before and of, course, there's always a presentation. The Bottomley Day Committee pondered a long time over a suitable gift for Jim and finally decided to sound out the Browne first sacker himself. So they asked, what would Jim like?

The same question has been put up to many a ball player. Some have shyly expressed a fondness for 16-cylinder automobiles, diamond rings and checks for large amounts. But not Jim Bottomley.

"Boys," Jim told the committee, "There isn't anything I want very much except a base hit now and then. But it's sure mighty nice of you boys to do this and if you're dead set on giving something, I might tell you I've been thinking of getting me a little Jersey cow for my farm at Bourbon."

The boys of the committee thought a little Jersey cow would be swell and so on Saturday afternoon, August 15, the finest little Jersey cow the committee can find will be led up to the home plate at Sportsman's Park and presented to "Sunny Jim."

Bottomley began his major league career in St. Louis with the Cardinals and remained with the Red Birds until traded to the Cincinnati Reds in 1933. By that time, he had become the idol of St. Louis fans who liked his smile and swagger and the jaunty angle of his cap as well as they liked his ball playing. Jim returned to a St. Louis uniform this spring when his old teammate of the 1926 championship Cards, Rogers Hornsby, traded Johnny Burnett to the Reds for him.

Bottomley Day will be Ladies Day, according to the Browns office, and boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 16 will be admitted free.

St. Louis.—"Sunny Jim" Bottomley, Brownie first baseman and one of the most popular players ever to wear a St. Louis uniform, will be honored with a "day" at Sportsman's Park on Saturday, August 15, when the Browns are scheduled to meet the Cleveland Indians.

It was a little more than two weeks ago that talk got around that "Sunny Jim" was through and would hang up his uniform in favor of life on his farm at Bourbon, Mo. The report turned out to be slightly exaggerated; Jim not only kept on playing, but played better than ever. He has been hitting better than 500 ever since.

Pirates Noseout Redlegs 5 to 4

Pittsburgh, Aug. 13.—(P)—Walter Hoyt, making his first start since an operation forced him to the sidelines back in the early weeks of May, pitched seven-hit ball today as the Pirates nosed out the Cincinnati Reds 5 to 4.

The victory gave the Bucs three out of four for the series.

The Reds made a last-minute effort to pull out in front, but the try fell short with the tying and winning runs on base in the ninth.

Co-Captain Ray Smith, of the Illinois college football team, spent the summer at the University of Illinois, taking some coaching courses. He is planning to bring his wife with him this fall when he comes back to Illinois college to take his final year of work.

A lot of folks around here recall when Patsy Clark, who will coach the Detroit Lions against the College All-Stars for the game in Chicago, was a star on the Williams and Vashit college teams. There were three Clark brothers, Patsy, Stewart and Jerry. Patsy later made his name at the University of Illinois.

Kenneth "Spike" Wilson, McKendree's rabbit football player, has reported to the Lions, and fully intends to make that team before the season closes. The Lions are training at Cranbrook, Michigan.

Off to Rehearse War Defense of Chicago

These Illinois national guardsmen were on their way "over, over there"—from Chicago to South Haven, Mich.—but no real fighting was in prospect. The men who embarked for the trip were among the 9000 soldiers of the 33d division assigned parts in the war games for the defense of Chicago, with scene of operations in the vicinity of Camp Custer, across Lake Michigan. High army officers attended to watch the largest concentration of troops in the midwest since the World War.

Each one was presented with a slip of paper with a name on it and they had to find a suitable partner, such as "Toots" and "Casper," "Romeo" and "Juliet," etc. After everyone had seen the ghosts the party returned to the Dawdy home where a refreshment course and other games were played.

Mrs. William Jouett, an elderly woman residing on Grant street, was overcome by a heat stroke Tuesday afternoon, while hanging out clothes on a line and fell in the yard. When found, she was in a serious condition. She seemed somewhat improved Wednesday.

His daughter, Mrs. Chester Tankersley, who lives north of Wrights, stayed at the hospital overnight and when she returned Wednesday, reported that her father had improved.

FIND BODY OF SUICIDE

Granite City, Ill.—(AP)—The body of Mrs. Olive Taylor Thomas, 34, of Granite City, was recovered by fishermen yesterday from the Mississippi river near Venice where she jumped into the stream after apparently making an unsuccessful effort to persuade her 10-year-old son, Monroe Taylor, to enter the water with her.

Fourteen hours before leaping into the river she was married to Harland B. Thomas, a Granite City steel worker. Two previous marriages ended in divorce.

Her son told police his mother took him to the river bank with her but that he jerked away just before she entered the water.

Len Watson of the Woodson community was included in the number of visitors in the city yesterday.

Horses, Mules Show Decrease in Greene County During Year

Automobile Values Decline Assessors Report: Other Carrollton News

Carrollton, Ill., Aug. 13.—According to figures available in the Greene county collector's office there has been a decrease both in horses and mules, and in automobile values during the past year. It is expected that the board of review may change the figures somewhat but it is unlikely that they will show any increase in horse or mule valuation. The number of autos and trucks as shown by the assessors returns are:

| | | |
|-------------|------|------|
| Township | 1935 | 1936 |
| Athensville | 62 | 69 |
| Bluffdale | 133 | 139 |
| Carrollton | 377 | 393 |
| Linder | 92 | 88 |
| Kane | 178 | 191 |
| Rockbridge | 239 | 293 |
| Roodhouse | 336 | 275 |
| Rubicon | 90 | 102 |
| Waukegan | 67 | 50 |
| White Hall | 293 | 237 |
| Woodville | 81 | 80 |
| Wrights | 91 | 98 |
| Patterson | 184 | 195 |
| Totals | 2225 | 2220 |

From these figures White Hall and Roodhouse have had such a marked decrease that they offset the other eleven towns, which with but one exception, Waukegan, show an increase. This fact cannot be understood and it is expected that the board will make marked changes in the assessors reports for these two towns.

The number of horses and mules are:

| | | |
|-------------|------|------|
| Township | 1935 | 1936 |
| Athensville | 272 | 229 |
| Bluffdale | 421 | 384 |
| Carrollton | 496 | 486 |
| Kane | 365 | 347 |
| Linder | 385 | 332 |
| Rockbridge | 548 | 494 |
| Roodhouse | 453 | 443 |
| Rubicon | 446 | 442 |
| Waukegan | 485 | 487 |
| White Hall | 339 | 289 |
| Woodville | 532 | 485 |
| Wrights | 485 | 454 |
| Totals | 5866 | 5513 |

All the towns show decreases in the number of horses and mules, still there are about three horses or mules to every one auto or truck. This does not seem possible for it is getting to be a rare sight to see either a horse or a mule on the streets of this city unless it is being carried in a truck. It is a common occurrence to find every inch of space on the business streets that is available filled with parked cars or trucks on busy days and evenings.

Edna Morris of Hannibal, Mo., was a caller in Jacksonville Wednesday evening.

Mr. Perbeck from the Markham neighborhood was a business caller in the city Thursday.

Vegetable Men Quit Business

Chicago, Aug. 13.—(P)—Some street peddlers of vegetables in the drought land said tonight they were going out of business.

The reason, they said, was the depletion of their wares by the long seige of dry weather.

Fresh garden crops were disappearing throughout the Midwest as extreme heat held a relentless grip.

Rains drenched a few states, but the moisture came either too late or in not sufficient quantity to be much help.

Marketmen in Omaha, Nebraska, reported business one-tenth of normal.

In St. Paul, vegetable supplies fluctuated from 50 to 75 per cent of normal.

13th Jinx for American Team

Berlin, Aug. 13.—(P)—All things considered, the 13th day of the 11th Olympiad proved somewhat of a jinx for many of Uncle Sam's contenders.

Americans gained an even break with Holland in the two women's aquatic titles decided; gained the final of the basketball championship; lost four of seven contestants for places in tomorrow's rowing finals; were eliminated from the sabre fencing trials, and made disappointing showings in the equestrian dressage competition and in women's gymnastics.

The classification of diving as part of the swimming program enabled the United States to retain women's team leadership as Mrs. Dorothy Poynton Hill and Velma Dunn of Los Angeles finished in that order in the platform championship with Cornelia Gilben of New York taking fourth, off-setting Holland's one-two finish in the 100-meter backstroke final by Dina Senff and Rita Mastenbrook. The Americans, Alice Bridges and Edith Mottridge Segal trailed the Dutch aces in that order.

America's chances of wrestling men's team swimming honors from Japan brightened on the second straight brilliant performance by Adolf Kiefer of Chicago in the 100-meter backstroke semi-finals. The Chicagoan was clocked in 1:06.8, one-tenth of a second faster than the new Olympic mark he established yesterday.

America's other Dorsel artists, Al Vande Weghe and Taylor Drysdale, also gained the final with three Japanese, Yashuhiko Kiyokawa, Yasuhiko Kojima, and Kichiro Yoshida.

In the 200-meter breast stroke, featured by Detsuo Hamuro of Japan who swam his heat in 2:42.5 for a new Olympic standard, America qualified Ray Kaye and Jack Kasley of Detroit, and Johnny Higgins of Providence for the semi-finals. The American 1,500 meter trio, Jack Medina, Seale, Ralph Flanagan, Miami, and Jim Christy, Chicago, also gained the penultimate round.

The women's 400 meter free style trials produced another new Olympic standard, 5:28, by Rasmild Hyeger of Denmark, as Lenore Knight Wingard of Homestead, Pa., and Mary Lou Petty of Seattle passed the preliminary tests. Dorothea Dickinson of New York withdrew due to a lame shoulder.

America's single sculler, Dan Barrow Jr. and double scullers, Bill Dugan and John Houser, all from Philadelphia, qualified for the regatta finals tomorrow, joining the University of Washington's highly-fancied eight.

The United States defeated Mexico 25-10 and Canada vanquished Poland 42-15 to gain the basketball final tomorrow; the men's sabre fencers were beaten in a semi-final round robin with Holland, Hungary and Germany; American women finished sixth in gymnastics; equestrian artists finished ninth in the team standing of the dressage competition.

RETURNS FROM WEST

Mrs. Nora Gaines, S. Church street, returned Wednesday from a two months' vacation trip in the west. She stayed for a time in the Canadian Rockies, stopping at Banff, Canada. Most of her visit was in Los Angeles.

U. S. Annexes Land—in Colorado!

"No Man's Land," a 1500 square mile area high in Colorado's Rocky Mountains, is now officially part of the United States after being unclaimed by any nation for more than a century. Gov. Edwin C. Johnson is seen above raising the American flag at the climax of annexation ceremonies in Breckenridge, Colo., one of the towns in the area.

Not A Big Racket But A "Good One"

Chicago, Aug. 13.—(P)—The "Old Lady From Aurora" was arrested today, and she turned out to be Mrs. Ina Smyth, 58, who really lives on West Madison street.

Police Sgt. Ralph Stepp said hundreds of Chicagoans have heard her sad story (told with gestures) of a lost purse and no train fare back home. Mrs. Bessie Lake was the latest.

When Mrs. Smyth came to her door and said she didn't know what would happen if she didn't get train fare back to Aurora, Mrs. Lake called the police.

"I suppose I've pulled that yarn about 500 times since the first of the year," Mrs. Smyth was quoted by Sgt. Stepp after she reached the police station. "It's a good one, and people always let me have the money, I figure I get between $1 and $1.50 a day. Not a big racket, but a pretty good one."

Loanable Funds Near-Peak Supply

New York, Aug. 13.—(P)—The nation's banking reservoir held a near-peak supply of loanable funds tonight as bankers prepared to carry out the order of the federal reserve board for a reduction in surplus as a means of tightening control over the flow of credit.

The reserve system's weekly condition statement showed balances of member banks in excess of legal requirements had increased $120,000,000 to $3,170,000,000. The peak for this foundation of vast credit expansion was about $3,300,000 last December.

This pool of potential credit, technically known as "excess reserves," was expected to be cut to about $1,700,000,000 Saturday in accordance with the reserve board's orders a month ago for a 50 per cent boost in the percentage of deposits member banks must hold in reserve with the system.

W. P. A. EMPLOYMENT

Washington, Aug. 13.—(P)—Immediate WPA employment for northern Minnesota and Wisconsin farmers whose property was destroyed by recent forest fires was authorized today by Howard O. Hunter, assistant works progress administrator.

Turning from the moment from the problem of drought relief, Hunter waived previous requirements that farmers be certified as in need of relief before receiving WPA jobs.

Mrs. Catherine Behl, daughter Catherine and son-in-law Wilbur Meyers were week-end visitors at the home of Edna Morris at Hannibal, Mo.

HEBRON LADIES AID SOCIETY HOLDS MEET

The Hebron Ladies Aid society held its annual picnic Wednesday evening at Hebron church. Dinner was served about seven o'clock to about fifty members and guests.

Following the dinner, Mrs. Dan Ward called the meeting to order. Roll call was answered by a Bible verse.

A nominating committee was appointed, consisting of Mrs. Ethyl Swain, Mrs. Edgar Shibe, and Mrs. George Hayes.

Mrs. Hayes then took charge of the following program:

After a short talk by the Reverend George Hayes, the meeting was adjourned.

MEAN DOG

Kansas City, Aug. 13.—(P)—Joe, admitted by his owner to be "the meanest dog in town," must confine his meanness to a more limited area, hereafter.

Owner John Garrison was brought into court today on complaint of a neighbor that "Joe" was eating his chickens. Judge Louis J. Mazuch ordered Joe's ranging chain be shortened after Garrison testified: "Joe's a mean dog. I'll put him up against any for pure meanness. I came home the other night and he even bit me."

C. H. Babbitt of the Woodson community was among those transacting business in the city yesterday afternoon.

Rev. Baylis Speaks At Kiwanis Meeting

Relates Experiences During Talk; Began Chautauqua Work Here

Rev. F. J. Baylis of Bluffs was the speaker at the Thursday meeting of the local Kiwanis club, at the Peacock Inn. Rev. Mr. Baylis' talk included a brief sketch of his life. His talk proved to be very interesting to the clubmen.

During the course of his discussion the speaker mentioned that he had, during his varied career, met five presidents of the United States. He first met U. S. Grant while a student in an English school. Following that time he met Chester A. Arthur, William McKinley, Warren G. Harding and Calvin Coolidge. Rev. Mr. Baylis also recalled the time when he met Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

The speaker served in the English cavalry during the Zulu War and managed a theatre for two years in South Africa. He was converted to Christianity in the Boverly Mission at New York and then became known as the "Cowboy preacher," speaking in the West.

For several years he was a lecturer at numerous chautauques during which time he became widely known for his splendid talks. His first lecture on the chautauqua platform was given at Nichols Park.

Rev. Baylis expressed appreciation at being an American citizen and closed his talk by giving a tribute to Illinois.

One Killed in Elevator Crash

New York, Aug. 13.—(P)—A motorman tentatively identified by police as H. J. Haken was killed and a number of passengers estimated at between eight and 18 were injured when two local trains on the Third avenue elevated line crashed between 73rd and 74th streets late tonight.

Police reported none of the passengers were seriously injured.

Both trains were southbound. Police said the rear train, carrying passengers, telescoped the rear car of the front train, on which only a motorman was reported riding.

An hour after the crash, firemen were still welding axes and blow torches in an effort to extricate the motorman's mangled body.

Mayor F. H. Laguardia hurried to the scene of the accident in a radio patrol wagon and climbed up a 40-foot ladder to the elevated structure to personally inspect the telescoped cars.

After all the injured passengers had been treated on the scene ambulance surgeons announced that only one required hospital treatment. He was Patrolman Dennis Healy, 52, who was taken to Flower hospital.

Elaine Berrie Is "Highly Nervous"

Hollywood, Aug. 13.—(P)—Actress Elaine Berrie is "highly nervous" because her off-interrupted "Ariel-Caliban" romance with Actor John Barrymore is definitely ended, her mother said today.

Miss Berrie is recovering at home from an injury suffered in an automobile accident Friday.

"She is in a highly nervous state," said her mother, Mrs. Edna Jacobs. "There is this other matter to make her nervous."

"This other matter," Mrs. Jacobs explained, is the ending of Barrymore's engagement to Miss Berrie. "The break is final," said Mrs. Jacobs. "And there is no one else in the life of Elaine."

Strike Called By Newspaper Guild

Seattle, Aug. 13.—(P)—The Seattle chapter of the American Newspaper Guild called a strike in the newspaper of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer today. Executives said publication would not be interrupted.

Charles W. Hope, regional director of the National Labor Relations Board, said he was filing a complaint on behalf of the Guild against the Post-Intelligencer and its management, setting a hearing for September 8th.

The complaint set forth the paper discharged two employees because of Quid activities. Pickets patrolled streets around the newspaper building.

CONTINUE NEGOTIATIONS

St. Louis, Aug. 13.—(P)—A committee representing striking operating engineers and 13 other craft unions at the Shell Petroleum company's Roxana, Ill., refinery continued negotiations this afternoon looking to a settlement of differences with the company.

Company officials and union representatives did not comment on the fate of a compromise proposal submitted yesterday by the labor committee, but the continuation of conferences today with national labor officials was significant of failure of the pact.

ARMY MANEUVERS

Belleville, Ill., Aug. 13.—(P)—The world's largest non-rigid dirigible, the United States army's TC-14, left her Scott Field base tonight for Allegan, Mich., to be umpire in week-end army maneuvers.

Col. Frank M. Kennedy, commanding the dirigible, said the trip north would be by way of Chicago with arrival at Allegan scheduled for 5 a.m. Friday. A crew of six men is carried.

Another Instance Which Proves It Pays to Advertise

Ashland, Ky., Aug. 13.—(P)—T. R. Hobbs got quick action on the ad he placed with Ashland Daily Independent for the return of his white and black puppy. Bill Rice, operator, setting up ad copy for the day, found the pup—asleep under the keyboard of his typesetting machine.

Name H.D. Lawrence To Speaker Group On GOP Committee

Will Address Labor Groups in Four States; Has Had an Active Career

Chicago.—(P)—Appointment of Howard D. Lawrence, retired railway conductor of Danville, Ill., as a speaker for the Republican national committee was announced today by A. K. Barta, chairman of the committee's speakers bureau.

Barta said Lawrence, active in labor circles for 40 years and for some time legislative representative for the railway conductors at Springfield, would address labor groups in Missouri, Pennsylvania, Michigan and Iowa.

"Everything organized labor ever has received of permanent benefit," Lawrence was quoted in a statement issued at Republican national headquarters, "came from the Republican party. Labor has received a distinct setback through the New Deal party and many labor leaders are beginning to realize this fact."

Townsend Assails Administration

Elmira, N. Y., Aug. 13.—(P)—Dr. Francis E. Townsend assailed the administration works relief program in an address here tonight and declared the "benefits reach very few people."

"If you think you are ever going to pay for this," he told a mass meeting of followers in Brand Park, "then you've got to help me devise a new system."

The pension movement leader said that "the Republican and Democratic parties are doing nothing that would lead to prosperity" and reiterated that he was "through with both."

"Landon and Roosevelt have both said that the Townsend plan was a 'crazy scheme,'" he declared.

"I'll have nothing to do with either of them. Not a statesman in either party has suggested a plan to return prosperity."

He declared he would support the third party movement led by Representative William Lemke of North Dakota.

"I'm not compelling you to vote for Lemke, but for God's sake use your heads this fall. You've had four years of the Republicans and four years of the Democratic machine and you've seen they've accomplished nothing."

Dairy Feed Will Increase in 1936

Washington, Aug. 13.—(P)—Dairy farmers of Wisconsin and Minnesota heard from Secretary Wallace today that despite their drought burned pastures there would be more feed for their herds this year than in 1934.

Using the August 1 estimates of the crop reporting service as a basis for his statement, Wallace exhibited charts at his press conference showing considerably larger hay stocks in the two states than in the extreme drought year of 1934.

Although pastures of the nation as a whole were reported slightly better than on August 1, two years ago, the secretary's chart showed Wisconsin to be one of six states where the sun had wrought considerably more damage to the grass lands than in 1934. The other states were Iowa, Indiana, the Dakotas and Kentucky.

Despite the hay crop, Wallace said there was a "serious problem in regard to dairy feeds" in the lake states. Farmers are feeding roughages not ordinarily used until winter, he said.

LANDS FOOD

Washington, Aug. 13.—(P)—The Cutter Northland advised coast guard headquarters today she had landed four and a half tons of food at Barrow, Alaska, and that the immediate famine situation among Eskimos there was in hand.

At the same time, the cutter said "existing destitution is not so serious as earlier reports indicated."

The Eskimos, isolated in tiny villages along the shore east of Barrow, were threatened with starvation when the usual schools of seals and whales failed to reach northern waters this summer.

MAY ANSWER ADDRESS

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 13.—(P)—John L. Lewis, leader of 10 unions threatened with suspension from the American Federation of Labor, was invited here today to answer an address made Wednesday by William Green, A. F. of L. president.

The leader of the United Mine Workers and moving spirit of the committee for industrial organization was invited by the 28th annual convention of the Hotel and Restaurant Employees International Alliance and the International Bartenders League who yesterday heard Green attack Lewis in an address to the group.

Owensboro, Ky. To Have Public Hanging Today

Woman Sheriff May Spring Trap Before Huge Audience

Owensboro Ky., Aug. 13.—(P)—The crowd that will gather to see Rainey Bethea hanged at sunrise tomorrow may not know until the hangman grasps the gallows trigger whether plump, middle-aged Sheriff Florence Thompson will put the 22-year-old Negro ravisher to death.

Mrs. Thompson, as Daviess county's chief peace officer, is charged by Kentucky law with responsibility for executing the death sentence. She has received hundreds of letters, telegrams and telephone calls. Some said a woman should not perform such a duty. Others urged that a woman should perform her duty.

She revealed today she had consulted her priest, she is a Catholic, and also had consulted several protestant ministers. All the clergymen, she declared, had assured her the death sentence in this case was sanctioned by the laws of God and man.

People from out of town poured in automobiles from other states rolled through the streets of this town of 25,000, and concession stands sprang up to serve those who would wait all night for a vantage point around the vacant lot that holds the gallows.

"Yes, I have made up my mind who will perform the execution, but I shall make no announcement," said Mrs. Thompson. "Nobody will know until the time comes. Why should I reveal my plans?" She could authorize a man even to spring the trap but she would not even say whether she would attend the hanging and be legally in charge of the first public execution in Daviess' county's 150 years of history.

Probe Murder of Peace Officers

Avaion, Miss., Aug. 13.—(P)—Sheriff's officers of two counties sought a solution today of the killing of two farm overseers on the theory it "might have been planned by an organized group."

Sheriff Earle Eguen of Leflore county said W. R. Ingram and W. M. Simpson, Jr., were shot to death yesterday when they went to evict negro tenants from a plantation near Avaion.

The sheriff, who with his deputies arrested two negroes for the shooting, said "we are working on the angle that some organized group might have been behind this, although as yet we have nothing definite to go on."

"We do know that the negroes around this section have been organized," he added, without naming a specific group.

Jews Boycott German Goods

Geneva, Aug. 13.—(P)—A resolution proposing a boycott of German products was adopted unanimously today at the world Jewish congress.

German national socialism, said the resolution presented by the committee on boycotts, has declared war on the whole Jewish people and in 3 years has carried on a war of unexampled severity.

It recited further that the Jewish minority in Germany had been deprived of its most elemental civil rights and had been eliminated from the economic life of the country which drove it back to a new ghetto.

The resolution charged that German national socialism had developed an unprecedented propaganda of hatred against Jews over the entire world.

HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Eagle River, Wis., Aug. 13.—(P)—A coroner's jury decided today the deaths of two persons were due to injuries received by an automobile driven recklessly by Samuel Lapich of Detroit.

Lapich was held on a manslaughter charge and a hearing was set for Aug. 27.

Victims of the crash which occurred Sunday night on Highway 45, near the village of Land O'Lakes, 17 miles from here, were Mrs. Edna Fusz of St. Louis, Mo., and Robert Kenney of Wausau, Wis.

MAIL EMBARGO

Washington, Aug. 13.—(P)—The postoffice department said today it had ordered United States postmasters to refuse until further notice parcel post packages addressed to Spain.

Conditions in Spain have made delivery so uncertain, John D. Lameli, director of International Postal Service, said, the department has found it advisable to forbid mailings of parcel post matter to either Spain or the Spanish zone in Morocco.

Other classes of mail have not yet been ordered held up, he said.

FISH LOSE WAY

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 13.—(P)—The North Pacific sockeye salmon, an orderly creature which never forgets its birthplace, apparently lost their way home this year, at the expense of American fishermen.

The result has been an unprecedented run of salmon through Canadian instead of American waters. One Canadian fisherman reported he made $3,200 in 18 days, at 55 cents a fish. American fishermen have been out of luck.

Mr. John Black of the Arcadia neighborhood was a visitor in Jacksonville Thursday.

Hog Prices Hit New High Level

Chicago, Aug. 13.—(P)—Broad shipping demand and good call from small killers today lifted hog prices to a new peak of $11.55, highest since last September, but part of the 10 to 25 cents advance was lost when the market closed for a net gain around 10 cents. Weighty steer prices also were at a new peak for the season.

The top price has not been equaled since the market slid back from the six year peak of $12.25, reached early last September.

The hog market was stimulated by another contraction in receipts. Supplies of both hogs and cattle at the major corn belt markets so far this week are sharply below last week.

Trade in cattle was fully steady to strong, with yearlings active at the week's 25 to 40 cents advance. The general run of fed steers sold from $8 to $9, topping at $9.75, although strictly prime cattle were still quotable as high as $10. Prime heifers sold up to $9.35. The top of $9.75 paid for weighty bullocks scaling 1,400 pounds was a new high for the season on weighty steers.

Range lambs were fully steady while natives were as much as 25 cents lower. Washington lambs sold from $9.50 to $10 with best natives at $9.75 and top Idahos at $9.50. Fed Texas yearlings brought $7.50 to $8.10.

Mrs. J. Steinmetz was in the city yesterday from the Woodson community.

State Relief Bills Passed; Horner to Sign Them at Once

Provide Extra Funds to Next February; Await Possible Fifth Call

Bulletin

Springfield, Ill.—(P)—A spokesman for Governor Horner today said the fifth special legislative session would be called for August 25, a week from Tuesday, instead of for next week. Creation of a state school board is to be the main question for action at the fifth session, but it was stated that the governor has not definitely decided on what other subjects will be in the call.

Springfield, Ill.—(P)—Unless Governor Horner called the predicted fifth special session to convene sooner, the general assembly will do no more work until the last week in August when it is expected to recess until October.

The senate, at a midnight session today, cleaned up the present matters of importance in the second special session by passing the newest relief plan, 44 to 0. The bills now go to the governor for an assured approval.

State Troops in Practice Warfare

Practicability of Theoretical Problems Studied

Allegan, Mich.—(P)—Battle lines were drawn across the heart of Allegan county today as troops of the "Red" and "Blue" armies prepared for one of the most difficult theoretical war problems thus far attempted by the army.

A rough terrain, virtually impassable in some sections; a tenuous line of communications and supply reaching back to the shores of Lake Michigan, and the novel situation of a completely mechanized force operating 400 miles from its home base, combined to present a knotty problem to the high command.

Reveille sounded long before daylight in the camps of the 32nd and 33rd Divisions, National Guard, comprising the main body of the "Blue" Army defending the Great Lakes area. The troops were called to be on the march by 7 a. m. headed for the "front."

Major General C. E. Kilbourne, commanding the Second Army extended the time set for occupation of the 12-mile sector from 2 to 3 p. m. and said a "truce" may be called at that time.

Civilian travel was rerouted through part of Allegan county to allow the troops free use of certain highways.

Commanding officers sketched the tactical situation as follows: The "Red" forces include the mechanized cavalry from Fort Knox, from the 32nd Division to augment the "enemy." They are in the Selkirk and Geneva Lake area.

The 12th Brigade, regular army, representing the outpost of the "Blue" forces, is covering the front from Swan Lake to Diamond Springs while the two National Guard divisions move into position.

Artillery, both anti-aircraft guns and 75's, is covering the advance of the 20,000 National Guardsmen and, due to expectation that the powerful GHQ airforce attached to the "Red" Army will try to delay the advance, all positions into which the troops will move will be carefully concealed.

Simulated mustard gas and machine gun attacks by "Red" aircraft were expected by officers of the defending army.

When woodpeckers in southwestern states bore holes in cactus, the wound seals itself with a hard, fiber lining, which is removed by native Indian, and used like a cup or glass to hold water and other liquids.

The electro-chemical impulses by which nerves carry messages from one part of the body to another travel at the rate of 400 feet a second.

HUNT MURDERER OF JAPANESE ACTRESS

Los Angeles.—(P)—Issuance of a first-degree murder complaint spurred a three-state search today for Ray Johnson, wanted by police in the knife slaying of Miki Takakoa, Japanese actress.

The 25-year-old oriental beauty was slashed to death with a butcher knife in her home early Tuesday, a few hours after her fiancé, W. J. Bachman, of New York, reported Johnson attacked him with an ice pick.

Capt. Hubert Wallis expressed belief that Johnson, a former suitor of the girl, was crazed by jealousy, Bachman was held as a material witness pending an inquest.

CHARLES CASEY TO SUCCEED KINGERY

Springfield, Ill.—(P)—Charles Casey of Carrollton will be acting director of the State Department of Public Works and Buildings when the resignation of Robert Kingery of Winnetka becomes effective Saturday.

Governor Horner, accepting Kingery's retirement with reluctance, announced that his desk would be occupied by Casey, former clerk of the house of representatives who has been assistant director of public works for two years.

Kingery, one of the original appointees to the Horner cabinet, resigned to return to his old job as secretary and general manager of the Chicago Regional Planning association.

"He has indeed performed a splendid job," the governor said.

Kingery, one of the Republicans holding directorships, will continue to serve as chairman of the State Planning Commission.

BROOKS SPEAKS AT TWO COUNTY FAIRS

Arthur, Ill.—(P)—Speaking before the Moultrie-Douglas County Fair today, C. Wayland Brooks, Republican candidate for governor, characterized the 1936 campaign as "of more importance than the conflict between the North and South three-quarters of a century ago."

"Self-government in America," Brooks said, "is in the balance. Never has there been a more important question to be decided by our people."

There is a growing feeling recently accepted in high places in our state and nation that citizens must become subjects, that our people must be ruled by a powerful central authority, that self-government cannot meet our present

He pointed out that only 53 per cent of the eligible voters of the district have exercised their right to vote and urged that 100 per cent of the voters be contacted.

The Rowe plan has been adopted by the state central committee and each precinct committeeman downstate will receive a "kit book" containing valuable information concerning the candidates and their issues. Information that applies to all classes of voters is contained in the plan.

Candidates in attendance at the meeting included Harry C. "Sample Ballots" To Aid Managers Name Ball Team

Plan Series of Games Here; Goofus Circle Ball to Feature Saturday

"Sample Ballots," to aid managers of teams in the YMCA Soft Ball Leagues, in their selection of Jacksonville's best players, were prepared at the YMCA office yesterday. Tho' the formal vote will not be taken until the last of next week already there is considerable discussion as to who should be on the team.

From this election, two teams will be chosen to play a series of games, and following these games a committee, elected by the managers, will determine just who will be sent as Jacksonville's team to the National Tournament at St. Louis.

As a means of raising funds for the entry fee which must be sent in very soon, a special entertainment game is to be played Saturday night. In this game, known as "Goofus Circle Ball" the players are all mounted in various mirth provoking vehicles, some of which are propelled by donkeys and goats, others, as the "dryland boats" by the players themselves. Those who have seen the game state that it is one of the funniest ball games ever invented.

The Park Board is cooperating in the project, allowing the YMCA Leagues to keep all of their share of the gate receipts to apply on the entry fee.

Water Situation, Belt Line Are Discussed At Meeting of City Council

Visions of a landscaped park for the colored people of the city grew out of the discussion of the city water situation at the regular meeting of the city council last night at which the council voted to seek consultation from the firm of Burns & McDonnell of Kansas City, regarding the situation, instructed the city engineer to draw up plans for making the buildings tracks, and to move one house which is in the path of the desired location of the road. The city engineer stated that the city commissioners look with favor on the proposition, and that with the excellent cooperation that exists between the city and county governments, it is possible to rush the road through.

Stapleton suggested that the city and county get together, form a committee and wait upon Ernest Lieberman, state highway department director, within the next two weeks in order to have the project included in next year's budget. Both C. M. Slaymaker, in charge of projects in this section of the state, and a Mr. Suhrman, chief engineer of design, are in favor of including the belt line in next year's budget, he reported.

Stapleton advised the council to get the road in the budget first, and then to worry about securing the right-of-way, some of which will be over streets already owned by the city.

Pass Tax Levy Bill The council passed a tax levy ordinance, calling upon the county clerk to levy taxes which will raise $138,141 for the general corporate purposes, $21,500 for the bond requirement sinking fund, $4,593 for the interest fund, $17,000 for public library purposes, $20,000 for park purposes, $30,000 for public benefit purposes, and $8,900 for P. W. A. electric light plant and water plant engineering fees and counsel fees.

Alderman John Early injected another discussion when he asked what procedure the city should take to incorporate South Jacksonville in the Jacksonville city limits. City Attorney Cleary said that he would be able to give a report on the necessary procedure at the next meeting.

Alderman Early did not explain the reason for his question, but the aldermen immediately began a discussion of the services received by South Jacksonville from this city, for which the village does not pay as much as the residents of the city. The argument centered particularly around sewage disposal and water. Alderman George Brown argued particularly on the water question. He said that the South Jacksonville people are allowed to use the water at the same rate that Jacksonville citizens pay, although the South Jacksonville representatives are not required to pay anything on the various bonds floated to pay for waterworks construction and improvements.

City Clerk John R. Phillips read a report of the city treasurer showing a balance of $14148.92 in the general fund and the council ordered it filed, along with the health report. He also read a report to the effect that the boiler in the city hall heating plant needed repairs, a report which was turned over to the city hall building committee.

Over the protests of Alderman Cocking, Ben Denney, and Ralph Green, the council voted to secure six more copies of the city audit. The vote followed a debate of a few minutes, in which it was brought out that the copies probably would cost in the neighborhood of $25 for six.

The council adjourned and then reconvened as the road district No. 7, which authorized the proper persons to sign tax anticipation warrants for $3,000, to meet outstanding obligations.

Tolerance Needed For World Peace Says Miss Gates

Speaks at Annual Dinner Meeting of Missionary Society

Miss Louise Gates in an address before the members and guests of the Grace Church Foreign Missionary society at their annual dinner meeting Thursday evening declared that the only hope for world peace is understanding through tolerance. The dinner was held at McClelland Hall MacMurray College.

Illustrating her remarks with a fund of anecdotes, she fascinated her audience as she told of the differences in customs, characteristics, and beliefs in various countries.

Miss Gates is a world traveler and a student of the people in many nationalities. She described the custom of "clicking the balls" followed by the Chinese scholars to keep their hands subtle for writing with a brush the intricate figures in their language. Also another custom of the scholars, that of wearing long finger nails. These she said seemed very queer to the American but to the Chinese it is just as strange that we observe the cap and gown as a symbol of the scholar.

Miss Gates said we are apt to magnify these differences but there is in reality much we can learn. For instance she noted the charm and beauty in the greetings of the Japanese, the three bows, which are executed with grace, showing great respect. The art of serenity could well be shared by Americans.

India the art of "Meditation" is taught, to such an extent that one can sit on a branch in a tree and the coiling of a snake on one's arm would not disturb his meditations. The culture of the Chinese, has been said to be, "The latent memory of a long past." The complacency of the Brazilian was noted by Miss Gates as an indifference to time and place, the life of the whole country being built along that idea.

Other differences as in food and language, festivals, dress and etiquette in reality, should be studies of interest, bringing to the mind of foreigners a tolerance which would unite the nations.

Miss Jeanette Scott, president of the society, presided over the program, introducing the speaker and also a delightful feature of the evening, including a duet, Barcarolle and "I Love A Little Cottage" by Mrs. Shenkel and Mrs. S. G. Baker. Preceding the address and in a final number Miss Beulah Stewart gave the following selections on the xylophone, accompanied by Miss Bernadine Bush: "Bells of St. Mary's," "Edelweiss Glide Waltz," "La Galondrina," "Indian Love Call" and "Old Black Joe."

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Fletcher of McAllen, Texas arrived here yesterday from a two weeks vacation spent in Colorado.

George Drach, Springfield attorney, was a professional visitor here today. Edward Miner, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at Our Saviour's hospital in Jacksonville, returned to the home of his parents Tuesday evening.

Those attending the game between the St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs in St. Louis yesterday included A. C. Booz, J. P. Booz, Ralph E. Shumaker, Frank Ruark, John Lashmet, Albert Hainsforth, Jr., and Frank Cowhick.
